

GITM join hands with Global Company D-Link & signed an MOU for establishing D-Link centre of excellence at the Campus.. It will be a centre of excellence. The Director of GITM, Dr. Kamal Thakur & CEO (D-Link Academy) Mr. Tushar Singhat signed the MOU. D-link will provide all necessary equipments to GITM for establishment of laboratories. D-Link will provide all necessary support services like course updation, equipment updation etc. The certificate to the successful candidate will be jointly given by D-Link & GITM.

The establishment of D-Link academy in GITM, Gurgaon will benefit the students, job seekers & professionals who want to enhance their knowledge in networking field. This program will help in enhancing the employability of students of surrounding region of Gurgaon. The following courses will be started at GITM:

Sr No's	Module	Course
1	Switching	DCS-Switching Program
2	Wireless	DCS-Wireless Program

D-Link Academy will help users to learn the most about cutting-edge technology across Switch, Security, Wireless, Storage, and IP Surveillance. Experienced instructors with extensive knowledge of networking technology, who will conduct informative training sessions that will thoroughly educate users about networking. Candidates will also have the opportunity to gain practical knowledge via. hands-on practice.

D-Link Academy is the center of D-Link's networking knowledge. D-Link Academy is a global education program designed specifically to provide training on topics such as, how to design, build, troubleshoot, and secure computer networks. D-Link Academy will help educate employees, customers, channel partners, and students about networking solutions through its high-quality training courses. With this, D-Link Academy aims to help candidates to improve their job skills and give them a better understanding of complex technical topics pertaining to Networking.